

HONORABLE ROBERT MORRILL
Mediation, Arbitration and Private Adjudication

AGREEMENT TO MEDIATE

Party A and Party B are the parties who have agreed to mediate their dispute regarding

_____.

The parties have agreed to mediate their dispute privately.

The parties have hired the Honorable Robert Morrill as the mediator. He may not act as an advocate for either party.

Each party is represented by counsel.

Each party is here voluntarily. Each party understands that mediation is voluntary. No party is required to accept or agree to any offer at any time.

Each party agrees to participate in good faith.

Each party understands that the mediation is confidential, except as provided by law. Each party understands that this mediation is a negotiation. Each party understands that, with certain exceptions, the negotiations are not admissible in subsequent legal proceedings. Each party agrees not to ask the mediator to testify and agrees not to subpoena the mediator and/or his notes or other work product in any future proceeding.

Each party has read and agrees to the Honorable Robert Morrill's mediation policies, his fees, and billing arrangements, and those documents are made a part of this agreement. (These documents, Mediation Policies and Mediation Fees, are available at the website, www.bobmorrill.com, or upon request).

Each party has had the opportunity to review this agreement to mediate, incorporated documents, and to ask any questions regarding the agreement and other policies and procedures.
