

HONORABLE ROBERT MORRILL

Mediation

RESUME

Experience

2007-Present Mediator in private practice, mediating over 1100 cases, including commercial disputes, personal injury, professional malpractice, employer/employee claims, real estate matters, contracts, construction cases, franchise issues, IP and trade secret disputes, corporate and partnership disputes, tax abatement and valuation contests, toxic torts, and collections.

1986-2010 Justice, New Hampshire Superior Court, presiding over thousands of jury and non-jury trials.

1974-1986 Private practice representing insurance companies, individuals, businesses, partnerships and corporations in federal and state courts.

Education

1974 J.D. University of Pennsylvania Law School.

1971 B.A. (Honors) Victoria University, Wellington, NZ, Rotary Foundation Fellow.

1970 B.A. (cum laude) Harvard College.

Training

Completed numerous American Arbitration Association, academic, court and other professional mediation and arbitration courses and training. Frequent speaker at CLEs on mediation and arbitration. Author of a number of articles on mediation.

Honors and Achievements

National Association of Distinguished Neutrals, Member.

American Arbitration Association, Arbitrator Panel (Commercial, Construction, Employment and International Centre for Dispute Resolution).

2004 & 2008 Faculty, National Institute for Trial Advocacy, New England Regional.

2003 Justice William A. Grimes Award for Judicial Professionalism, N.H. Bar Association.

1999 Award of Judicial Excellence (one of four awarded nationally), National Conference of State Trial Judges, Annual Meeting of the ABA, Atlanta, Georgia.

1994 N.H. Trial Judge of the Year (first judge selected), NH Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates.

1984-2009 Instructor, Harvard Law School's Trial Advocacy Program.